My Overarching Research Theme

How can English education contribute to the "formation of students' character"?

The Basic Act on Education (Purpose of Education)

Article 1: Education shall aim at the full development of human character and shall be conducted with a view to nurturing citizens who are healthy in mind and body, and who possess the qualities necessary to form a peaceful and democratic nation and society.

私の総括的な研究主題

英語教育がいかに児童・生徒の「人格形成」に向けて貢献できるか？

（英語教育を通して「人を育てる」とはどういうことか？）

究極の課題

「教育基本法」（教育の目的）

第一条　教育は、人格の完成を目指し、平和で民主的な国家及び社会の形成者として必要な資質を備えた心身ともに健康な国民の育成を期して行われなければならない。

Today's Topic

1. Team-teaching
2. "Goals" and "Purposes" in Foreign Language Education
3. Humanistic Language Teaching (HLT)
4. HLT: Activity Design Perspectives, and Classroom Practices
5. Evaluation
6. English Education in the Era of Digitalization
7. Conclusion

Team-Teaching

Why was team-teaching introduced ?

What are the merits of team- teaching?

Why was team-teaching introduced ?

- Improving students' communicative competence in English.
- Providing opportunities to interact with speakers from other linguistic and cultural backgrounds.
- Promoting international understanding.
- Supporting Japanese teachers of English (JTEs) in developing more communicative lessons.

Merits of Team-teaching

(1) Increases motivation for communication
(2) Facilitates students' active participation
(3) Promotes cross-cultural understanding
(4) Provides the JTE with increased opportunities to improve their English skills

Challenges of Team-teaching

(1) Insufficient time for making lesson plans together with JTEs

(2) Unclear division of roles

(3) Differences in teaching philosophies

What are the basic roles of JTEs and ALTs?

JTE

. Decides lesson plans of the day and organizes the whole lesson

. Acts as a model conversation partner with the ALT

. Supports students who have difficulties learning

ALT

. Acts as a model communicator of English

. Acts as a conversation partner with the JTE

. Provides plenty of opportunities to make conversations or interactive activities with students

. Provides correct pronunciation, grammar, and sentences in addition to correcting students' mistakes

. Acts as a cultural informant

Goals and Purpose s of Foreign Language Education

What are the "Goals" and "Purposes" of Foreign Language Education?

Goal: Concrete indicators or milestones that specify "what should be achieved, by when, and how"

Purpose: The underlying reason for achieving the goals

The broader, higher-order concept that gives meaning and direction to the goals themselves.

ここであらためて外国語教育の「目標」と
「目的」について考えてみましょう。

＊目標：「何を・いつまでに・どう達成するか」という

目的：　目標達成のための存在理由。目標の上位概念。

Goals and Purpose s of Foreign Language Education (by Course of Study)

"Goal"

To cultivate the qualities and abilities necessary for developing students' English communication competence

Then, what is its "Purpose" (←teacher beliefs) ?

外国語（英語）教育の「目標」と「目的」

「目標」

英語によるコミュニケーション能力育成を図るための資質や能力の育成

「目的」は？（⇒教師信念）

Takashi Miura (Professor Emeritus, Shizuoka University)

"To learn English is to live through the language of English. The ultimate purpose of English education is not the development of practical communication skills. That is merely a means. When the means becomes the end, it no longer connects to one's way of living. To reflect on English education is to ask whether students are truly 'alive' through their learning of English."

(p.167, 2014)

- "Goal" turning into "Purpose"
  - What does it mean for students to "live" in the classroom?

三浦　孝（静岡大学名誉教授）

英語を学ぶということは、「英語ということばに生きること」です。英語教育の最終目標は、「実践的コミュニケーション能力の育成」ではありません。それは、手段です。手段が目的化してゆくとき、生きることとはつながりません。英語教育を考えることは、「英語を学ぶことによって生徒が生きているか」を問うことです。

（167頁、2014）

- 「目標」の「目的」化
- 授業で生徒が生きるとは？

Yuko Naoyama (Kansai Gaidai University)

"Communicating through language is one of the most essential means for understanding others. I believe that beyond the acquisition of foreign language proficiency lies the possibility of world peace. When people around the globe are able to interact with one another, such connections can contribute to achieving world peace at the citizen level."

(p.11, 2017)

直山木綿子（関西外国語大学）

言葉で伝え合うことは、他者理解の重要な手段の1つです。外国語を使いこなせるようになるという外国語教育の先には、世界平和があると考えます。世界中の人と交流できるようになることで、市民レベルから世界平和の実現に結びつくと思うのです。

（11頁、2017年）

UNESCO's Stated Purpose of Foreign Language Education

"The teaching of modern foreign languages is not an end in itself, but should serve by its cultural and human aspects to train both pupils' mind and character and contribute to better international understanding and the establishment of peaceful and friendly cooperation among peoples."

Even within Japan, communicating with people from different cultural backgrounds is becoming increasingly necessary.

Therefore, along with developing students' linguistic abilities, it is essential to cultivate the "human qualities" that promote mutual understanding. In particular, the human qualities to be fostered through English education include:

- Diversity
- Relational awareness / connectedness
- Empathy
- Collaboration
- Resilience (the ability to face adversity and challenges) etc.

In what ways can English education help students develop their humanity?

＜課　題＞

英語教育を通して、いかに「人間性」を身につけることができるか？

Humanistic Language Teaching (HLT)

Two Core Elements for Fostering "Humanity"

- Personalizing the content
- Creating warm, supportive, accepting, and non-threatening classroom climate

「人間性」を育む主な要素

- 題材を自分事とする
- 教室内の温かく、支持的、受容的、非脅威的な教室風土を醸成する

Content-based Perspectives

Topics (⇒Diverse Ways of Seeing and Thinking)

human rights, peace, the environment, welfare, intercultural understanding, literature, and more.

Current textbooks are a treasure trove of materials that promote human growth !

- Clothing, food, and housing in other countries
- School life and daily routines abroad
- Children's dreams for the future
- The Hiroshima atomic bombing
- Racial discrimination
- Land mines · Water issues · Food chains
- Resources and energy
- Science and technology
- Robotics · Generative AI
- Overtourism
- Tropical rainforests · Guide dogs
- Geography, history, and cultures of various countries

Internalizing the essence of each topic as one's own issue

・題材論的視点（⇒多様な見方、考え方）

人権、平和、環境、福祉、異文化理解、文学、等々

＊現行の教科書は学習者の人間的成長を促す題材の宝庫。

外国の衣食住、学校生活、日課、子どもたちの将来の夢、広島原爆、黒人差別、地雷、水問題、食物連鎖、資源・エネルギー、科学技術、ロボット学、生成AI、オーバーツーリズム、熱帯雨林、盲導犬、諸外国の地理・歴史と文化、等

題材の神髄に迫り、自分事として捉える

“People feel, and thus, think and express.”
(feel → think → express)

Therefore, it is essential to let the topic resonate in learners’ hearts, and help them internalize it as their own concern.

However, the current reality is that most of the times, it doesn’t quite get to the heart of the subject.

人は感じるから、考え、表現する！
“feel → think → perform/act”

まずは、題材を学習者の心に響かせ、自分事として捉えさせる

＊しかしながら、現状は題材の神髄までに迫っていない場合が少なくない。

Morizumi's Views On Content/Topics

First, lesson objectives often fail to address the subject matter or themes dealt with in the lesson. There should be objectives such as "to deepen students' understanding of racial discrimination," "to explore the meaning of personal identity through the dialogue between Alice and Humpty Dumpty," or "to gain insight into the nature of art through an examination of Van Gogh's life."

However, such objectives are extremely rare. Instead, the prevailing practice is to focus almost exclusively on linguistic elements, such as sentence patterns, grammatical structures, and new vocabulary. Typical objectives include "to help students master the structure There is (are) ..." or "to develop an understanding of and the ability to use the relative adverb where."

When lesson objectives are framed in this way, the outcomes are inevitably limited to those same linguistic aspects. (1992, p. 42)

題材論：森住 衛の見解

まず、授業の目標に題材に関することを取り上げていないことが多い。「人種差別について理解を深める」とか「アリスとハンプティ・ダンプティの対話を通して、個人の名前とは何かを考える」、「ゴッホの生き方を通して芸術とは何かを知る」などの目標があってしかるべきなのだが、きわめて少ない。あるのは「There is (are) ~. の構文に習熟させる」とか「関係副詞 where の理解と使い方」など文型・文法や新出語（句）などの言語材料に言及したものだけの場合が主流を占めている。目標がこうであれば、結果もそうならざるを得ない。

（1992、42頁）

Takahashi Sadao's Views on Content/Topics

The Importance of Content

The purpose of English education is "human education" — supporting children's growth. Therefore, English classes should not merely teach English as a subject; rather, they must use the English language as a medium to teach about human beings and society. In the end, how we select and approach "content" fundamentally shapes the nature of English education itself.

(2001, p. 8)

題材論：高橋貞夫の見解

題材の大切さ

英語教育の目的は「人間教育」であり、子どもたちの成長をサポートすることなのである。したがって、英語教育は単に英語というモノを教えるだけでなく、英語という言語を媒介して人間や社会のあり方を教えていかなければならない。結局は、「題材」の取り上げ方が英語教育のあり方に決定的な影響を及ぼすことになるのである。

Unit 6　What does it mean to be a global citizen ?

Imagine your life without school. If you didn't study, you couldn't read or write. If you were illiterate, you couldn't get information through books or websites. In some parts of the world, there are children living like this.

Children like these in Afghanistan receive school backpacks from Japan. It makes them happy. It also encourages their parents to send their sons and daughters to school.

Most of the backpacks come with pens and notebooks. So, students will be ready for school. In areas with no school buildings, children can use the backpacks as desks in the open air. In these ways, school backpacks from Japan have been changing children's lives.

How can we help students make this passage personally meaningful to them?

Questions we ask are important!

"Display Questions" & "Referential Questions"

Display Questions: Questions about factual information

Asked when the teacher already knows the expected answer, often to check understanding.

Example: "What color is the stop sign?"

Referential Questions: Questions that elicit inference, interpretation, and feelings and thoughts.

Asked for information the teacher genuinely doesn't know, and when encouraging real communication.

Example: "What do you think about this passage?"

このパッセージをいかに生徒に「自分事」として捉えさせますか？

Display questions ＆ Referential questions

Referential questions を広げ、言語活動として使用可

Display questions:事実発問

Referential questions:　推論、評価発問

Please make a display question and a referential question.

Clues for Making Referential Questions:

- What do you think and feel about the topic?
- Do you agree or disagree with the statement?
- What if you were in the other person's shoes?
- Why did the character use that particular expression?
- What would you say if you were in other person's position?
- What do you have in common with the other person?
  How are you different?
- How do you think the other person felt at that moment?
- What do you think will happen next? What might happen in the future?

＊Referential questionをつくるためのヒント

・自分はどう考える？感じる？
・命題に対して賛成？反対？
・もし自分が相手の立場だったら？
・登場人物はなぜそのような表現を使ったのか？
　自分だったらどのような表現を使うか？
・自分と相手との共通点は？相違点は？
・そのときの相手の気持ちは？
・その後の展開は？将来生じると予測されることは？、等

Human Relationships in the Classroom

Human Relationships in the Classroom

Create a safe and secure classroom environment an accepting, empathic, and supportive classroom climate

"I am not alone — I am always accepted, protected, and connected."

Q) How can we create such safe and secure classroom climate?

教室内での人間関係

・教室内の人間関係

安心・安全な教室環境を作る
受容的、共感的、支持的な教室風土
“I am not alone, always accepted, protected and connected.”

質問：いかにしてこのような教室風土を醸成できるのか？

How to create a safe and secure classroom climate

- Build trusting relationships. (T-S, S-S)
- Accept mistakes as part of learning.
- Respect individual differences.
- Encourage students to express themselves freely.
- Promote mutual respect and cooperation.
- Provide positive and constructive feedback.
- Give students choices of learning and enhance a sense of autonomy.

安心・安全な教室風土を醸成するには？

・信頼関係を築く（教師-生徒、生徒間）
・誤りを学びの一部として受け入れる
・個人差を尊重する
・自由に表現することを促す
・相互尊重、相互協力の精神を高める
・肯定的、建設的なフィードバックを与える
・学びの選択権を与え、自律性を高める

< HLT: The Role of the Teacher >

Before being an "English teacher," you must first be a "teacher of human beings"

1) A teacher filled with humanity and compassion, who learns from student's ways of being and continually supports their growth and grows together with them!

2) A teacher who accepts every learner unconditionally, believing in each student's desire to grow and their latent potential

3) A teacher who accepts all learner output and responds sincerely

＜HLT:　教師の役割＞

「英語教師」である前に、
「人間教師」であること

1）人間愛に溢れ、常に児童生徒の姿に学び成長を促す教師、
そして、子どもとともに成長する教師！

2）いかなる学習者でも無条件に受け入れ、一人ひとりの
有する成長欲求や潜在的可能性を信じて関わる教師

3）学習者からの発話をすべて受け入れ、真摯に反応できる教師

Now, let us explore perspectives for designing activities, and practical classroom applications.

ここで、HLTの活動設計の視点及び実践について
見ていきましょう。

Designing Activities from HLT Perspectives

HLT especially focuses on ：

- Deepening self-understanding
- Raising understanding of others and building relationships with others

HLTの視点からの活動設計

HLTが特に重視している点

- 自己理解を深める
- 他者理解及び他者との関係性を意識する

Activity Design Perspective (1): Self-Understanding

Deepening Self-Understanding

WHY?

* The stronger the personal relevance is to the activities, the more easily learners develop their thinking and understanding.

* Every human being has a desire for self-expression —the wish to be known and understood by others.

活動設計の視点(1)：自己理解

自己理解を深める

WHY?

＊自分との関連性(自己関与性）が高ければ高いほど、思考と認識の発達につながりやすい。

＊どの人間にも自己表現欲求がある。

「自分のことを相手に知ってもらいたい、理解してもらいたい」

HLT especially focuses on enhancing students' self-esteem! What is self-esteem?

とりわけ、児童生徒の自己肯定感を高めることが大切！
では、自己肯定感とは？

What is Self-Esteem（自己肯定感とは）？

Self-esteem is the feeling of affirming oneself — accepting oneself as they are and sensing that “I am a valuable person.”

自己を肯定する感覚。つまり、自分をありのままに受け入れ、自分は大切な存在であると感じる感覚。

Self-Esteem

* It is something everyone possesses
* It is nurtured and developed over time (not innate but cultivated)
* It grows within relationships and interactions with others

自己肯定感

＊誰にも備わっている
＊後天的に育まれる
＊他者との「関係性」の中で育まれる

Correlates of Self-Esteem

- Academic achievement
- Sense of accomplishment and motivation
- Moral and normative awareness
- Sense of self-efficacy / personal usefulness
- Awareness of and engagement with society and the local community

自己肯定感との相関関係

- 学力
- 達成感、意欲等
- 規範意識
- 自己有用感
- 社会・地域に対する意識

Grade 9: “A Letter from My Future Self Five Years Ahead”

(C

Practice)

〈Aim〉

By having Grade 9 students write a letter from their future selves five years ahead to their present selves, students—who have only six months left before graduation—are expected to imagine their future paths.

(Target Grammar: Relative pronoun)

中3：5年後の未来から今の自分へ（大脇実践）

＜ねらい＞

5年後の未来から今の自分へ手紙を書くことで、中学３年生も残り半年となる中、卒業後の進路を想像させ、5年後にどういう人と出会い、どういう人が自分にとって必要なのか、今の自分に足りない点や必要とする友達について自己分析させたい。

（目標文法：関係代名詞）

生徒の作品

First, I want you to became someone who can make an effort. I hope you'll work hard and challenge yourself in many different ways. Then, I think I'll be able to become someone who can recognize people's hard work.

The second is to cherish your friends. Because I want you to make lots of memories with your friends.

I'm twenty years old. Even if you fail, you won't die.

You may feel uneasy, but do not be afraid!

Do your best without overdoing it!!

Best wishes.

Teacher's Comments

This student often times has positive outlook and does her best in front of everyone. She also served as a class representative. However, in reality, she carries a great deal of anxiety and is afraid of being alone. When that fear arises, she ends up going to the restroom. There have also been instances of self-harm.

The message this student wants to send to herself is something like: "Don't deny yourself. Be kind to yourself. I love you." It seems she wants to tell herself to enjoy each day and to say "I love you" to herself.

As a teacher, I felt reassured to see that even in the midst of her lack of confidence, this student is beginning to form a determination to live strongly in the future.

教師の振り返り

この生徒は、みんなの前に立って頑張る子です。学級委員もしていました。ただ、実はとても不安を抱えていて、一人になるのが怖い。そう思うとトイレに行ってしまう。自傷行為もあった。

この生徒の自身へのメッセージは、「自分を否定しないで。自分に優しくしてあげて。私はあなたを愛しているから」と自分に対して毎日を楽しんでと伝え、I love youと伝えたいのではないか。

指導者としては、自分に自信がない生徒の今の心境にも将来への力強い生き方への決意を見とることができて安心した。

Activity Design Perspective (2): Understanding of Others and Building Relationships

Rasing understanding of others and building relationships with others

"Self-actualization" is realized through relationships with others !

活動設計の視点(2)：他者理解、関係性

他者理解及び他者との関係性を意識する
（他者受容性・共感性）

「自己実現」は他者との関係性の中で結実する！

Elementary: “Spot the Differences” Activity

Understanding of Others

〈Aim〉

By discovering unexpected sides of friends with whom they usually interact casually, students deepen their understanding of one another.

小：間違い探し

他者理解

＜ねらい＞

ふだん何気なく関わっている友だちの意外な一面を知ることで、友だちへの理解を深める。

- Find one sentence that contains misinformation.

1) Mr. Kagata is from Kyushu.
2) Mr. Kagata likes fishing.
3) Mr. Kagata is good at swimming.
4) Mr. Kagata studied in Seattle.
5) Mr. Kagata likes apples.

Grade 9: “If You Were a Hero” (Suzuki’s Practice, 2025)

⟨Aim⟩

To help students notice the strengths of others and deepen their acceptance and understanding of their peers.
(Target Grammar: Subjunctive)

⟨Background⟩

People have aspects of themselves that they like or excel at, as well as aspects they dislike or feel less confident about. In this activity, students work in pairs to carefully observe and understand their partner’s personality and characteristics. Based on these observations, they imagine what kind of hero their partner would be, and consider how that partner could contribute to solving challenges in everyday life.

中3：If You Were a Hero　（鈴木実践　2025）

＜ねらい＞

　他者のよさに気づき、さらなる他者受容、他者理解を高める

(目標文法：仮定法)

＜背景＞

人には自身に対して好きな面、優れた面、嫌いな面や劣っている面がある。本活動ではペアになって、その相手のもつ性格や特徴をしっかり理解し、それをもとに相手のヒーロー像を想像する。そして課題が多いこの日常生活の中で相手がどのようにその課題解決に貢献できるか考える。

生徒の作品

If [A] were a hero, she would heal people in pain.

My friend [A] is a good student. She always follows the rules and does all of her homework. She studies hard every day because she wants to be a doctor in the future. Outside of school, she secretly helps people all around Japan. She has a special pen that she uses to transform herself into a magical girl. She can travel quickly with her power and find people who are hurt and in pain. Then, she says magical words to heal them, and the pain disappears. Seeing children smile gives her the energy to do her best every day at school. Like a real doctor, her kindness can change the world.

Reflections After the Activity — Teacher's Perspective

The students are now approaching their very first major decision about their future paths. Watching these third-year students preparing for exams, I am reminded that learning means continually facing different versions of oneself.

At times, they feel disappointed when confronting their weaknesses; at other times they feel joy when something they once struggled with becomes achievable through effort. Through these moments of ups and downs, I can see that they are steadily growing.

In just a few months, they will graduate from this small school and step into larger communities, where they will encounter many new people and new experiences. If, in those new environments, they ever feel lost or begin to lose confidence, I hope they will remember this "If You Were a Hero" activity. And I hope that memory will become a spark— a reminder of their strengths, and a source of courage to encourage themselves forward.

活動を終えて　　指導者の思い

生徒たちは今まさに初めての進路決定に向かおうとしている。受験生を見ていて感じることは，学ぶということは様々な自分と向き合うということである。自分と直面してがっかりしたり，できなかったことが努力したことによりできるようになったりと，一喜一憂しながら，生徒は着実に成長していると感じる。そして，数か月後にはこの小さな学校を卒業し，今より大きな集団で様々な人との新しい出会いを経験するだろう。そのような生徒たちが，もし新しい環境に戸惑い，自信をなくしそうになった時，ぜひ「If You Were a Hero」の活動を思い出し，自分を鼓舞するきっかけになることを願っている。

Follow-up Story

One night Puff saw a dream. In the dream Jackie appeared. Jackie said, “It‘s a long time since I saw you last. I’m sorry, Puff. I can‘t play with you any more. You have no need to feel sad. I know you need friends, Puff. You can make friends. Enjoy your life without me. I can see you every time, everywhere. I always live in your heart. You should discover your new life and new friends. Believe in yourself..." Jackie faded away.

Puff went to make friends and succeeded making a new friend. His name was Jack Paper. He was Jackie's son. (male)

Student's Reflection

When I wrote my original story, I tried to make it positive. I thought that if Jackie and Puff were true friends, Jackie would encourage Puff to cheer up, even if it meant scolding him. So, I decided to write a story like that. I also wanted Puff to become happy in the end.The reason I chose to write a positive story is that even if I were in the same situation as Puff, I would want to think positively about things all the time.

創作文を書くにあたって気をつけたことは、肯定的な内容にしようとしたことです。Jackie と Puff が本当の友人なら、Jackie は Puff に叱ってでも元気を出すように言うと思ったので、そういう内容にしました。そして Puff も幸せになるという話にしました。なぜ僕が肯定的な文章にしたかというと、もし僕が Puff のような状況におかれたとしても、常に物事を肯定的に考えていきたいと思ったからです。(男子)

小：What can we do to protect the Earth？

<Aim>

Reflecting on what students learned in third-grade social studies about the 3Rs of environmental protection (recycle, reuse, reduce), they are expected to express what they can do to help protect the environment.

＜ねらい＞

小3の社会科で、環境の3Rs（recycle, reuse, reduce)を学習したことを踏まえ、環境保全のために自分ができることについて考え、表現する。

- What can I do for Earth？
- 表現：4Rs: I can recycle/reduce/reuse/refuse~.
- 語彙：newspaper, cans, plastic bags, pet bottles, clothes, etc.

児童の作品

I like our Earth.

I can recycle pet bottles.

I can reduce water.

I can reuse clothes.

I can refuse plastic bags.

Thank you.

高2：A letter to Ms. Gerta Thunberg（山本実践 2025）

<Aim>

＜ねらい＞

グレタ・トゥ－ンベリさんの国連気候行動サミットで演説した内容を理解し、自分の気候変動への取り組みを顧みて、グレタさんへコメントを書く。

生徒の作品

Dear Greta,

Bleaching sea corals, soil erosion, strong typhoons, I knew all of these are happening. However, if I were questioned if I was taking action, that would be a "No."

You have said if you knew what's happening but did not take action in order to fix it, that would be "evil." Now, I know how evil I have been. To be honest, I did not take action because I prioritized my lifestyle that I am having, when I should have prioritized our future.

When you stated how irresponsible adults are, I questioned to myself. I believe it is not only the adults who should be responsible. Unlike you, I think teenagers are also responsible for the situation we are having. Many teenagers know the situation but do not act. We have the power to change the situation but we are too lazy to do so.

In the end, thank you so much for making me realize how irresponsible and evil I am. There are not many people who say things in an honest way. I will do my best to become "good."

Sincerely,

H.N.

AIによる評価（「知・技」５点、「思・判・表」５点）

① 知識・技能（文法・語彙の正確さ）：★☆☆☆☆（1点／5点）

＜主な問題点＞

時制とbe動詞の誤用

語法の混乱

（名詞・動詞・形容詞の使い分けができていない）

不完全な文構造

＜評価コメント＞

単語そのものはテーマに合っていますが、正しい形（時制・構文）に使えていません。基本的な文法の理解が不十分です。

② 思考・判断・表現（内容のまとまり・意図の明確さ）：★★☆☆☆（2点／5点）

＜ポジティブな点＞

- 「昨日」「病院」「祈る」「悲惨な状態」「救われたい」「悲しい」といった、ある一つのエピソードを語ろうとしています。
- 絶望や不安といった感情を言葉にしようとする姿勢が見えます。

＜課題点＞

- 文がつながっておらず、読み手にとっては意味の解釈が難しいです。
- 順序や理由関係（なぜ祈ったのか・何があったのかなど）が説明されていません。

＜評価コメント＞

書き手の内面にある感情は想像できますが、文としての構成や表現が不十分で、読み手にははっきり伝わりません。

Teacher's Comments

After returning from a business trip, I was reading through nearly 200 notebooks from five classes, which I had asked the students to complete as a self-study assignment. The moment I began to understand what one student had written, tears welled up in my eyes and I could not stop crying.

This student, whom I will call K, had been frequently absent since his first year of junior high school. Perhaps because the lesson on the expression "I'm …" had made a strong impression on him when he attended class, he had developed a habit of putting "I'm" in front of almost everything he said or wrote.

At that time, when he was in his second year, his father had suffered severe burns over his entire body in an explosion caused by gasoline left in a car he was dismantling. He was in the hospital, and his condition was so critical that no one could tell whether he would survive. K had been staying away from school to be with his father at the hospital. However, his mother, concerned that the emotional strain was becoming too much for him, encouraged him to return to school.

Even as he sat in the classroom, his thoughts must have been consumed by concern for his father, who was fighting for his life.

加藤（岩本）先生の言葉

出張から戻り自習課題として書かせた5クラス分200冊近いノートを読んでいた。読み始めて意味がわかった途端、涙が溢れて止まらなかった。この生徒K君は1年生の時から欠席がちで、たまたま授業に出た日に習ったI'm~の印象が強かったのか何でもI'mをつけるくせがあった。2年生のこの時、父親が車の解体作業中、残っていたガソリンによる爆発で全身大火傷を負い入院中であった。予断をゆるさない病状で学校を休んで付き添っていたが本人の神経がまいりそうなので母親に勧められて登校してきた。教室に座っていても考えるのは危篤状態の父親のことばかりだったろう。

He was looking up words in a Japanese-English dictionary and writing entirely on his own. I was reminded that students can be so awkwardly persistent in trying to express what they really want to say, and that what they truly wish to write about is often what they carry deep in their hearts.

K's father passed away ten days later, and K began to miss school more and more frequently.

During the third term of his third year, K's homeroom teacher continued to make efforts to encourage him to come to school, knowing how important attendance was for his future high school education. Several attempts were unsuccessful, but one day, K finally came to school in the afternoon.

When his homeroom teacher encouraged him, saying, "Why don't you come to school, even if it's just for the afternoon?", K looked at his timetable and replied, "Oh, I have English this afternoon. In that case, I'll come."

加藤（岩本）先生の言葉

和英辞書で単語を引き一人で書いている。生徒とはこんなにも不器用に自分の書きたいことにこだわるものであり、心に抱えることを書きたいのだということを思い知らされた。

K君の父親はその10日後に亡くなり、K君の欠席は増えていった。3年生の3学期、担任は高校進学のためにもK君の登校を促す努力をしていた。何回かはだめだったが、ある日午後からやってきた。「昼からだけでも行こう」と担任が誘うと、時間割を見て「英語があるなあ。じゃあ行くわ」と言ったそうである。

Entering the Digital Age

As digitalization rapidly advances in English education today, it is precisely now that we must look at English teaching through the lens of "human existence"!

We must aim for lessons in which learners feel the warmth and comfort of human connection, where people exchange living language, with consideration for the other person.

To achieve this, it becomes increasingly important to draw fully on the identities, experiences, bodily presence, and emotions of both teachers and students.

デジタル化時代に突入して

英語授業のデジタル化が進展している昨今こそ、

英語教育をよりいっそう「人間存在」の観点から見つめる！

「相手への配慮」を大切にし生きた言葉を交わしながら、人間どうしがつながり合うことの温もりや心地よさが感じられる授業をよりいっそう目指す。そのためには、授業では教師や生徒のアイデンティティ、経験、身体性、情動を最大に生かすことがさらに問われてくる。
